

Length of Stay Rules

- Maximum stay seasonal limits:
 - Coast-Peak Season: May 1 to October 31: 14 nights
 - Coast-Low Season: November 1 to April 30: 30 nights
 - Inland-Peak Season: Memorial Day weekend thru Labor Day: 14 nights
 - Inland-Low Season: Day after Labor Day thru Thursday before Memorial Day Weekend: 30 nights
 - Regardless of the start date, the end date of a planned stay will determine the applicable season for maximum nights allowed.
 - Any stay over 30 days but less than 90 days will require a long-term agreement.
 - No customer will be allowed to stay more than 90 days without prior approval of the Park's Director. This will be accomplished thru an extension of an existing long-term agreement subject to a recommendation of the Park's Coordinator.

Long term payment rules for customers wanting to stay over 30 days.

- First 14 days: Pay regular rate for campsite used. During this period the customer will make an application for a long term stay which once approved will allow them to stay up to 90 days.
- 15-90 days: Pay 80% of regular rate for campsite used but only under a long-term agreement. Customers who enter into long term agreements will pay in advance an amount equal to 50% of the intended stay with the balance due prior to the second half of their intended stay.
- Windy Cove – Loop A may have Commercial Fishing Operators stay for up to 90 nights.

Limits on Long Term Agreements

- Long term agreements are only allowed during the low seasons and are subject to a maximum number of 10 agreements in any given park.
- Long-term stays are limited to full hook up sites only and two vehicles, no exceptions.
- Long term agreements requested during peak seasons will be allowed only if the following conditions are met.
 - Must have a verifiable employment need in the area. Examples include traveling nurses or construction workers. Verification requires a letter on Employer's letterhead stating the work and dates of employment in the area.
 - The stay must be paid in full prior to first day of arrival and there will be no refunds issued if the reservation is shortened. This only applies to employer paid stays.
