About Douglas County Human Resources Department

The mission of the Douglas County Human Resources Department is to promote the most efficient level of service to the public and all other users of Human Resources' services by maximizing each employee's contribution through recognition of their individual abilities and talent and to help develop a sense of meaning and enjoyment in county service.

About Douglas County

Douglas County Government employs approximately 800 full- and part-time employees in a wide variety of jobs. The Board of Commissioners, consisting of three full-time members, is the county's governing body. They provide a direct link between the citizens of Douglas County and their county government. The Board of Commissioners is responsible for: approving ordinances (county laws); adopting the county budget; setting standards for the use of county property; appointing non-elected officials to boards, commissions, and committees; and oversees all operations of the county.
